Disclosure of your information

We may share your information with selected third parties including our tutors, administrators and examination boards. We may disclose your personal information to third parties if we are under a duty to do so in order to comply with any legal obligation; or in order to enforce or apply our terms of use.

Storage of your data

The data that we collect from you will be stored on the office computer with a secure access code and in locked office filing cabinets. It is not anticipated that your data will be subject to automated processing or transferred outside of the EEA.

Your rights

To the extent that we are a controller of your personal data you may request access to, rectification, or erasure of your personal data, or restriction of processing or object to processing of your personal data, as well as the right to data portability. In each case, these rights are subject to restrictions as laid down by law. The following is a summary of your rights:

The right of access enables you to receive a copy of your personal data

The right to rectification enables you to correct any inaccurate or incomplete personal data we hold about you

The right to erasure enables you to ask us to delete your personal data in certain circumstances

June 2019

The right to restrict processing enables you to ask us to halt the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances,

The right to object enables you to object to us processing your personal data on the basis of our legitimate interests (or those of a third party)

The right to data portability enables you to request us to transmit personal data that you have provided to us, to a third party without hindrance, or to give you a copy of it so that you can transmit it to a third party, where technically feasible.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office if you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes the Data Protection Legislation.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us (see Contact Us below). We will respond to your request within one month. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of requests. We will inform you of any such extension within one month of receipt of your request. We may request proof of identification to verify your request. We have the right to refuse your request where there is a basis to do so in law, or if your request is manifestly unfounded or excessive, or to the extent necessary for important objectives of public interest.

Additional information for GCSE and As/A-level students

Correspondence on any aspect of a candidate's examination or assessment will only be conducted between the awarding body and the head of the centre, a member of the senior leadership team or the examinations officer.

UCM will hold the following data:

June 2019

1. Personal data relating to the name(s), date of birth, gender, Unique Candidate Identifier (UCI) or Unique Learner Number (ULN) of an individual candidate which will always be collected by an awarding body for the purposes of examining and awarding qualifications. In some cases additional information, which may include special category personal data relating to health, will also be collected to support requests for access arrangements and reasonable adjustments and/or special consideration. Such personal data will be supplemented by the results of examinations and assessments undertaken by the respective candidate.
2. A candidate's personal data will only be collected in the context of examination entries and/or certification claims.
3. Such data collected will not be used other than for examination administration purposes, conducting examinations and assessments and the issuing of examination results and certificates.
4. Personal data within candidates' work will be collected for the purposes of marking, issuing of examination results and providing candidates with access to post-results services.
